

AUGUST ASMUS

New Hamburg Independent - August 26, 1878

TAILORING

Mr. August Asmus is the leading representative of the "Knight of the Goose" in Tavistock. He came here in 1868, and commenced business as a tailor and cutter. Three years ago Mr. Asmus got in a large stock of tweeds, full cloth, broad cloth, shirting, etc., and since that time has been driving quite a snug little business as a merchant tailor. The agency for the Wanzer sewing machine is in his hands.

In June of 1882, August Asmus was on the building committee for taking tenders for the construction of the new Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church in Sebastopol.
